1. The American Field Service, 113 E 30th St, NYC 16, NY annually sponsors about 600 incoming and 600 outgoing high school students. Age limit: 20 years. There are various durations of stay (school year, calendar year, summer months, etc). Since it is a completely private group, the Visa Requirement is the only means whereby these students can be checked. State Department has used the Field Service "on occasion" to bring in certain students.

2. There are 6 other, and much smaller, programs for high school age youth. I expect to receive information on these, but not on a priority basis.
